The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 4. to Tuesday July 7. 1730.

Moscow, June 1, N. S.

PRINCE Thamas has sent a Gentleman to General Levanshoff, who commands the Russ Army in Persia, to acquaint him that he is in Possession of Ispahan; upon which the General sent a Lieutenant-Colonel to compliment him on his Success, as also an Express to this Court to inform the Czarina of the News.

Dresden, July 1, N. S. On Wednesday last the Kings of Poland and Prussia took the Diversion of Hunting at Lichtenbourg, when above a Thousand Stags, Wild-Boars, and Roe-Bucks, were killed. Their Majesties dined together after the Hunting was over, and about Six a-Clock in the Evening the King of Prussia took his Leave and set out for Potsdam. The King of Poland lay that Night at Cotsdorff, about half way between Lichtenbourg and the Camp, and is expected here this Evening. The Margrave of Anspach set out at the same Time the King of Prussia did, and lay that Night at Torgaw.

Copenhagen, July 1, N.S. The King of Denmark did not appear Yesterday in publick at Friedensbourg, being confined to his Chamber by a Swelling in his Foot, occasioned by his having been let Blood in it a Day or two before; it is the same Foot which was hurt in the Fall his Majesty received last Year at the Foundery in this City.

Dresden, July 4, N. S. The King of Poland returned from the Camp the 1st Instant, and the next Morning Sir Charles Hotham, Minister from the King of Great Britain to the Court of Prussia, had an Audience of his Polish Majesty, and set out immediately afterwards for Berlin.

Hague, July 7, N. S. The States of Holland separated to Day, and will meet again on Wednesday next. We have Advice here, that the King of Prussia had deferred his Journey to Anspach to the 15th Instant; and that M. Degenfelt was ordered to set out forthwith from Francfort for England, and that he may be expected here in about Eight or Ten Days.

Hague, July 11, N. S. The Colonels of the Regiments, out of which the two Batallions designed for the Expedition of Don Carlos, are chosen, are now here, as also the Undertakers for the Transports, to concert all Matters for the Imbarkation; and the said Batallions are to be forthwith ordered to march towards the Texel to be more at Hand for the Imbarkation. Count Sinzendorff, Minister from the Emperour of Germany, has obtained Leave from his Court to go to Aix la Chapelle to use the Waters there. Count Degenfelt has writ to M. Meynertshagen, the Prussian Minister here, from Francfort, that he is making all the haste he can to come this Way, and hopes to be at Rotterdam about the 20th Instant, in order to embark for England.

Victualling-Office, July 3, 1730.

The Commissioners for victualling his Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Wednesday the 5th of August next in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in Writing, sealed up, at their Office on Tower-Hill, from all such Persons as are willing to serve His Majesty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk and Cheshire Cheese, for the Year ensuing, ending at Michaelmas 1731.

South-Sea-House, July 3, 1730.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Threadneedle-Street, on Friday the 10*th Instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, for the Purpose of declaring the Dividend on the Capital Stock of the said Company for the Half Year ended at Midsummer last.*
